Introduction/Background

Established in 2003, Taraboom is a local charity founded in memory of Tara Houston. It has grown significantly over the years, driven by unwavering community support. The charity's primary objective is to provide financial assistance and support to families facing challenging times.

The Tara "Boom" Houston Children's Foundation aims to improve the lives of families with children dealing with life-threatening illnesses. As a charitable organization, positively impacts individuals facing difficult circumstances by offering financial aid and emotional support.

Facts/Findings

Financial Assistance Program:

Taraboom focuses on providing financial aid in Southwestern Ontario for various expenses related to a child's life-threatening illness, including travel, accommodation, treatment, assistive devices, and daily living expenses.

Qualifying Assistance Criteria:

Eligibility criteria include having a child aged 17 or younger, residing in Southwestern Ontario, facing a life-threatening illness, and experiencing financial hardship.

Assistance Process:

Taraboom employs a comprehensive process involving family volunteers, individual needs assessment, and allocation of financial assistance based on each family's unique situation.

Coverage Area Limitations:

The Foundation states that it does limit the scope and region of aid to manage resources effectively.

Summary

Taraboom is a local charity with a proven track record of making a meaningful impact on the lives of families facing challenging circumstances.
